

Aboriginal Heritage

POLICY COMMITMENTS <sup>1</sup>
Tasmanian Liberals	Tasmanian Labor	Tasmanian Greens	Jacqui Lambie Network
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Strong support for re-opening takayna / Tarkine off-road vehicle tracks</li> <li>• Development of contemporary Aboriginal heritage legislation (pursuant to legislative requirement to update Aboriginal Heritage Act 1975 by 2019)</li> </ul>		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Do not support re-opening of takayna / Tarkine off-road vehicle tracks</li> <li>• Engage with Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal Tasmanians to formalise the signing of a Treaty with Tasmania's First People that acknowledges the wrongs of the past and commits to tangible acts of reconciliation</li> <li>• Return more land spiritual, cultural, and economic significance to the Aboriginal community, recognise ownership of cultural property, and provide support for management</li> <li>• Support updated heritage protection legislation to replace the Aboriginal Heritage Act 1975</li> <li>• Supporting Dual Naming Policy</li> <li>• Support cultural hunting and fishing practices, including buying back abalone and crayfish quotas for Aboriginal community use</li> <li>• Support new opportunities for sustainable cultural tourism development</li> <li>• Amend the State Planning Provisions to require consideration of Aboriginal heritage during the development application processes</li> <li>• Support co-management options for protected areas and formal reserves that are of Aboriginal heritage and cultural significance</li> <li>• Encourage conservation, farming, tourism and development sectors to work with the Aboriginal community</li> </ul>	Strong support for re-opening takayna / Tarkine off-road vehicle tracks

<sup>1</sup> Commitments based on published policies for this election. We have tried to be thorough but cannot guarantee that all policy commitments are recorded.